THREE THOUSAND SHEEP KILLED AND TWO SHEEPMEN INJURED

Cowboys Dashed in Upon Herders, Tied Them to Trees, and Rode Oue Among Sheep Slaughtering Them.

Grand Junction, Colo., May 20 .- As result of a battle between sheep men and cowboys on a contested range near Atchee, Colo., yesterday, 3,000 head of sneep were killed and United States government send out two sheepmen were injured, but none seriously. The sheep, which belonged to Taylor Brothers of Montrose, were court asked that he be notified when grazing on a range near the hamlet of Carbinero. According to the reports received Colonel H. O. Perly of the Medical nere, the cowboys dashed in upon the corps, U. S. A., returned on the Kais- herders and tied them to trees and then rode out among the sheep, killippines, where he had served three ing them. The slaughter of the sheep reuired almost an entire day. In or der to prevent the news leaking out, were improving both from a sanitary and a commercial point of view. He wires and then made their escape in sheep herders were discovered and

The authorities of Garfield county have been notified, but owing to the fact that the district in which the sheep slaughter took place is in a desolate portion of western Colorado, is not regarded as probable that the cowboys will be captured. The range in which the crime was committed has long been a contested range, and several murders have resulted from uarrels over it.

STEAMER MONGOLIAN CAUGHT IN DANGEROUS ICE FLOE

St. Johns, N. F., May 19.—The Allan liner steamer Mongolian, bound from Glascow and Liverpool for St Johns, N. F., Hallfax, N. S., and Philadelphia with five hundred passengers on board, was caught in a dangerus ice jam one mile off this harbor late today, and tonight was in a hazardous position.

It was feared that if the wind increased before daylight the Mongol-an would be driven ashore and become a total wreck. In the event of an accident it is thought the pass-engers could escape by walking over the densely packed ice floes. Just returned from the ice packed waters of Belle Isie straft, where she had been abandoned by her crew and lat-er rescued, the coast steamer Prospera also lies wedged in the ice be-tween the Mongolian and the shore The Prospera was sent out to take off the passengers and mails of the Mongolian, but had just passed the harbor mouth when the ice barrier became impregnable and further headway was impossible.

One Colored and One White Man Fin ed For Drunkenness-Bingham Miner Allowed to Go.

The morning session of police court included a number of petty cases which varied from that of a drunken miner to a weak-faced clothes thief. John Doe Boda was the name of the first-mentioned individual and he was charged with vagrancy. Officer Layne testified that he had discovered Boda in company with some suspicious characters who were trying to dispose of some clothing. The prisoner, who admitted that his real name was Carl Boda, stated that he had been in town for a few days, having come from Bingham Junction, where he had been following the vocation of a miner. He stated that he was a drinking man and that he had squandered most of $40 or $50, since his arrival, in drinking He admitted that he had been arrested in Salt Lake some years and then stated that he had spent ten years in jail. This was soon changed o ten "days," however, when he was reminded that the sentence was rather a severe one for mere drunkenness The court thought the matter a plain case of "drunken miner." his connection with the suspicious persons re ferred to being but an unlucky acquaintance picked up about town.
